DESCRIPTION: This 2-day course was created to provide your current Field Training Officers with advanced communication, teaching, and documentation skills to enhance their abilities. The course is designed for current FTOs or department FTO coordinators. Continued improvement in their skills is necessary when so much depends on new officer training and the liability that comes along with negligent retention. In a litigious society, training and thorough documentation is more important than ever. Help those who train our next generation be the best they can be!

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Generational differences
- Overcoming personality conflicts
- Understand why adults learn differently and how to address those distinctions
- The FTO as a teacher and mentor
- FTO is your first true leadership position
- Training mistakes
- Review of typical trainee deficiencies along with training techniques crafted to fix each specific problem
- Documentation of deficiencies
- Negligent retention
- Students will review real body worn camera videos

Students should have successfully completed the basic recruit training program or have been exempted prior to taking this course. Officers who successfully complete this course within the assigned hours may apply this course toward satisfying their mandatory retraining requirement. See Section 943.22, F.S., and Rule 11B-35.006, F.A.C.
