COURSE DESCRIPTION: Why do agencies wait to train our employees on how to be a detective until after we move them there? This 36-hour course is designed to train your officers and deputies to become a viable and well-rounded detective, prior to transfer or just after. The course is taught by several seasoned instructors from APC, all of which are experts in their respective fields. Graduates from the Academy will be ready to take on the huge responsibility of being a detective. Improve your department's reputation and increase case clearance and prosecutions!

TOPICS INCLUDE

- Search and Seizure; Miranda Issues
- Investigative Resources and Source Development
- Interview and Interrogation Techniques
- Burglary; Organized Theft Rings
- Sexual Battery and Intimate Partner Violence
- Child Abuse and Sex Crimes
- Death Investigation; ME Response
- Violent Crime and Firearm Investigations
- Crime lab processing

Students should have successfully completed the basic recruit training program or have been exempted prior to taking this course. Officers who successfully complete this course within the assigned hours may apply this course toward satisfying their mandatory retraining requirement. See Section 943.22, F.S., and Rule 11B-35.006, F.A.C.
